General terms

The show is organized in accordance with the regulations of the FCI, the Slovak Kennel Club (SKJ), the Slovak Boxer Club (SBK), and these show regulations issued by the organizer. Only dogs registered in studbooks recognized by the FCI may participate in the show.
Should the show be cancelled due to circumstances beyond the organizer's control, the entry fees will be used to cover the expenses already incurred.
Judges are required to disqualify aggressive dogs.
Judging is carried out in accordance with the valid breed standards issued by the Fédération Cynologique Internationale (FCI).
A judge may refuse to judge a dog that enters the ring late.
The sale of puppies within the show grounds is strictly prohibited.
The organizer accepts no responsibility for any loss, damage, injury, or death caused by or sustained by any dog.
The owner or exhibitor is responsible for any damage caused by his or her dog.
Dogs must be kept under control at all times. Free running of dogs within the show grounds is strictly prohibited.

The exhibitor is responsible for the welfare of his or her dog at the show. The dog must not be exposed to situations that could endanger its health or life, such as being left in a vehicle during extreme heat or cold, or being subjected to any form of cruel treatment.
Any person who violates these welfare principles may be excluded from this and future shows organized under the authority of the organizer.

By entering a dog for the show, the exhibitor, as a data subject pursuant to Act No. 18/2018 Coll. on the Protection of Personal Data, gives consent to the organizer to process his or her personal data (name and surname) for purposes related to the organization of the show and agrees to the publication of his or her name, photographs, and show results on the organizer's website and in other official show materials.
The organizer reserves the right to refuse participation in the show, including judging in the breed rings and final competitions, to any exhibitor who does not use or properly display the correct and clearly visible catalogue number assigned to the exhibited dog.

Veterinary Regulations

Every dog owned by a citizen of the Slovak Republic must have a veterinary certificate with valid vaccinations against rabies, distemper, parvovirus, and hepatitis. These vaccinations must have been administered at least 21 days and no more than 1 year before the exhibition, or according to the validity period specified by the vaccine manufacturer.
Dogs from abroad must have a valid Pet Passport with a current rabies vaccination.

Registration
ONLINE REGISTRATION ONLY – www.clubdogshow.sk
After submitting the online entry form, the exhibition fee must be paid through your user account. The exhibition fee must be paid no later than 24 hours after registration.
A legible copy of the dog's pedigree must be uploaded with each entry. Every entered dog must have a pedigree; a puppy card or proof of registration is not sufficient.
Applications for dogs whose pedigree issued by an FCI-recognized studbook is not uploaded to the online system will be automatically deleted. This rule also applies to Minor Puppy and Puppy Classes.
The organizer reserves the right to refuse any application without stating a reason.
Entries cannot be accepted on the day of the show.
Transfer of a dog to another class on the day of the show is not permitted.

Judges
The organizer reserves the right to change judges.

Protests
A protest may be submitted only for formal reasons. It must be submitted in writing to the show office during the exhibition and no later than the completion of judging in the rings. A deposit of €50 must accompany the protest. The deposit will be forfeited if the protest is rejected.
Protests against a judge's decision, including awards, placings, titles, or qualifications granted, are not admissible.
